A Prayer of Mary's song in Luke 1:46-55

We praise you, Lord,
and our spirits rejoice in you – our Saviour;
For you take notice of the unnoticeable.
and transform them into the blessed;

You are strong and true to yourself and all that is good in everything
you are and do and say;
and you do great things for us;

Through the ages you have shown compassion
to those who trust you,
And in your strength you have scattered
those who are arrogant and abusive;

You have made the thrones and tyrants topple
and you have made humble people
into leaders of many;

You have cared for and provided for those who have nothing, and you have left the over-satisfied
with empty hands;

You have always been a help to your people,
and have shown mercy when we have gone astray;
You made promise to our ancestors,
and you continue to stay true to it even now.

We praise you, Lord,
and our spirits rejoice in you – our Saviour.

Amen.

~John van de Laar

Sunday, (Dec 8): Loving Father, we stand in awe of Your amazing grace and wonderful goodness, and the more we understand Your incomprehensible love for us, the more our soul and spirit unite in magnifying Your holy name and worship You as our Savior and Lord. Pray that Mary's song would put words on our lips that will transform our minds, resulting us to abandon our self-made idols and come to the Lord. Pray that we like Mary, will hear the good news of the coming of Christ and live into that reality in faith and praise. Pray that our hearts will always be grateful and rejoice in God, our Saviour for what he has done for us.

Monday, (Dec 9): Church: We thank God for the creative idea of young people having "Come Hang Out With Us" day on Dec.15 (Sun.). May we embrace the opportunity and invite our Lord Jesus in the midst of our fellowship. May He bless our time with young people for better understanding and appreciation with one another. We also commit the LCEC Budget Meeting that is held on Dec.14 (Sat.). Pray that the leaders will seek, hear and submit to the Lord's guidance, and He will enable us to manage His provision wisely for the use of His Kingdom.

Tuesday, (Dec 10): Pray for churches around the world to promote Christian values in technology by proactively engaging with AI and allowing Christians to shape how these technologies grow in accordance with Christian ethics and values, so impacting how AI is used globally. Pray that God will equip local churches and agencies with everything they need to carry out Bible translation and engagement works, allowing their communities to encounter Jesus through Scripture in the languages and formats that speak to them. Pray for the prayers and reflections for the 2025 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, commemorating the 1,700th anniversary of the first Christian Ecumenical Council, held in Nicaea, near Constantinople in 325 AD.

Wednesday, (Dec 11): Pray for the Nation - Pray for the revival of the spirit of Muhibbah, which has served as a guiding principle of unity and harmony in our Malaysian society, as recent challenges have shown fractures in intercultural relationships and understanding, casting doubt on the resilience of this cherished ideal. Pray against conflicting narratives and historical grievances that contribute to exclusion and marginalisation among certain communities, fueling resentment and discord. Pray for God's peace, prosperity and harmony to reign in our country and that every Malaysian has a stake and a voice in nation building to build a better and future Malaysia.

Thursday, (Dec 12): TRAC: Haknook Jenang OA Hostel - We give thanks to God for the opportunity to do ministry for the OA Community through the Hostel. Pray that God will enable us to persevere in this ministry. Pray that God will continue to provide for this work. Pray for each of the students who are with us in the hostel - that their lives may be truly blessed. Pray also for the upcoming Christmas celebration on the 21st of December. Pray for a meaningful time of connecting with the parents and family of our students.

Friday, (Dec 13): Pray that God will put in our hearts the names of family, friends or colleagues who have not yet come to know our Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. As we unceasingly remember them in our prayers, may God grant us the opportunities and courage to share with them His love and good news. As we open ourselves in this season of Advent to receive the gifts of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love that comes from God through our Lord Jesus, may this be the time for us to share it with those who have yet to know Jesus as their Lord.

Saturday, (Dec 14): Pray for the World: Pray for missionaries, families and friends, especially those who are away from their homeland. Pray that God will continue to fill each of them with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, as they reflect upon His guidance in 2024 and commit to His leading in the coming new year. Pray that they will be able to celebrate Christmas together with the people in their community to praise and give thanks to God. Pray for God's continuous protection and guidance to be upon them, and that they will be able to experience His presence, hope, peace, joy and love during this season.
