Pray for Love

Good news bringer,
on this fourth Sunday in Advent
we journey to you,
with eyes open for your good news.

Your good news offers
comfort to the heartbroken,
freedom to the captives,
and sight to the blind.

In these Advent days
full of tinsel and trees,
mince pies and turkey,
writing cards and wrapping presents;
we pray that you would help us
turn our focus to you,
to the real good news story,
to a couple having a baby,
to a people welcoming a savior,
and to a world welcoming the light.

As we prepare for parties
and family gatherings
help us prepare our hearts to welcome the Hope, Peace, Joy and Love that came to us in the form of a tiny, fragile human baby.

Filled with your good news,
may we turn to each other, and all we meet,
and share abundantly.
Amen.

Sunday, (Dec 22): We express gratitude to God for revealing that Isaiah 9:1-2 is in the rearview mirror, allowing us to anticipate the fulfillment of Isaiah 9:7. Pray that Isaiah's message to the weary world that the ultimate reason for joy is centered upon a child embodies the sermon "All eyes on the Baby." Pray for weary world and Christians like us to have reason to rejoice because we have been given a son who is a wonderful counselor, a mighty God, an everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace, redeeming us from our failure and bringing us into his own justice and righteousness. Pray that just as the messianic kingdom will usher in the eternal kingdom, the empire of grace will forever expand, ascend, enlarge, accelerate, and intensify.

Monday, (Dec 23): Church: We commit to the Lord our Christmas service on 25th. May our hearts be ready to give thanks and praises for the coming of the King of kings. Throughout the year, may we be drawn to the wonder of God's love and faithfulness in sending His one and only Son, Lord Jesus to come and dwell among us. May the light of His love always shine in our hearts, allowing us to be a beacon of His love in our communities. May many people attend or return to this Christmas worship service, and may this be the great opportunity to share the true meaning of Christmas with others.

Tuesday, (Dec 24): Pray that the Almighty God who has showered us with the new light of His Incarnate Word, to allow the same light enkindled in our hearts to shine forth in our lives through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Pray that God who provides the new birth of His Son in the flesh redeems us from the old slavery under the yoke on sin, so we may joyfully receive him with joy as our Redeemer King. May God grant us the light of Christmas, which is faith; the warmth of Christmas, which is purity; the righteousness of Christmas, which is justice; the belief in Christmas, which is truth; and the all of Christmas, which is Christ.

Wednesday, (Dec 25): Pray for the Nation - Pray for communities to come together in solidarity to support one another during this challenging time, and grant wisdom to local authorities on coordinating relief efforts for the flood victims, especially on the East Coast. Pray for wisdom and unity among our leaders and communities during this season of hope of Christmas. Pray that the celebration of Christmas true spirit will serve as a momentum to show love, kindness, understanding, and compassion among each other and spread goodwill among the various communities, regardless of race, religion, and background.

Thursday, (Dec 26): TRAC: We commit to the Lord the pastors with new appointments. Pray for God's guidance and provision to be upon them. For those pastors who will be sent to another church, may God provide them a good closing and farewell at their current church, as well as a warm welcome to a new church where they can build a good relationship with leaders and members in order to grow and work together in Him and for Him. May God bless every pastor with His protection, good health and wisdom as they pursue God's calling to nurture His people for the extension of His Kingdom.

Friday, (Dec 27): Pray for the family. Pray for God's grace to bring about forgiveness, understanding, healing, and reconciliation in strained family relationships. Pray that family members can reconnect throughout this season. Pray for God's comfort on those who are mourning the loss of a loved one, for His provision on the family in needs, and for His peace on those who are in anxiety. Pray for God's protection upon those who are travelling during this holiday.

Saturday, (Dec 28): Pray for the World: Pray for Vanuatu, which was hit by a severe 7.3-magnitude earthquake last week. Pray for God's comfort upon people who are experiencing abrupt shock and grief, especially those who have lost loved ones. Pray for God's protection over people and rescue work. Pray that clean water and food are available to those in need. Pray that there will be no tsunami or aftershocks.
