Suscipe Prayer

Take, Lord, and receive
all my liberty,
my memory,
my understanding,
and my entire will,
All I have and call my own.
You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours;
do with it what you will.
Give me only your love
and your grace,
that is enough for me.

–St. Ignatius of Loyola (1491–1556).

Sunday, (Dec 29): Thanks to the assistance of the Holy Spirit, the understanding of both the realities and the words of the heritage of faith that is able to grow in the life of the Church. Pray for each of us as the Klang Wesley congregation, and help us Lord as we begin a new year by leading us forward with discernment, excitement, enthusiasm, and love, and binding us together in perfect harmony. Pray the Spirit of God descend upon our hearts, that we make every pause, every stop, and every gap into an opening for God's light to shine through Pray for the Lord's infinite grace to open up our lives so that we can treasure the disciplines of our faith and the freedom of His Spirit, which are fundamental to the faith-filled life we seek.

Monday, (Dec 30): Church: We commit to the Lord our Watchnight Service and Prayer meeting on tomorrow night. We thank God for His faithfulness and goodness throughout the year 2024. May we gather together to worship Him and give thanks to Him. May God also examine our hearts, reveal anything that is not pleasing to Him, and lead us to repent before Him. In gratitude and humility, may we continue to seek Him and depend on Him in the coming year 2025.

Tuesday, (Dec 31): Gracious and merciful God, we pause this day to count our blessings giving thanks for the beauty of the changing seasons, the bounty of the harvest, and the opportunities this year has provided for us to grow and mature as God's people. Loving God, in your promises, we give you thanks for new year and so as we enter 2025, we let go of the old ways of sin and guilt, praying that your new ways of love, forgiveness and peace will take hold of us anew. Pray as we usher in the new year; we ask God to continue to challenge and mold our hearts and minds to be open to receiving His Word, hearing His voice, and experiencing His infinite presence.

Wednesday, (Jan 1): Pray for the Nation - Pray for wisdom and unity among our country's leaders and communities during this season of hope. Pray for the healing of divisions and the restoration of respectful dialogue across diverse groups. Pray for the safety and protection of our communities, especially those returning to their hometowns during the holiday season, as well as for meaningful relationships, bonding, and presence with one another beyond of material celebrations.

Thursday, (Jan 2): TRAC: We commit to the Lord the pastors with new appointments. Pray for God's guidance and provision to be upon them. For those pastors who will be sent to another church, may God provide them a good closing and farewell at their current church, as well as a warm welcome to a new church where they can build a good relationship with leaders and members in order to grow and work together in Him and for Him. May God bless every pastor with His protection, good health and wisdom as they pursue God's calling to nurture His people for the extension of His Kingdom.

Friday, (Jan 3): Pray for migrant workers and refugees. Pray that God will watch over them, keep them safe from danger in their daily lives and they will be treated humanely. Pray that God will provide their daily necessities, especially in light of the rising cost of food and inflation. Pray that God will grant us a compassionate heart so that we can bless and share His love, as they are far from home and family. Pray that they will also encounter Christ while staying in this nation.

Saturday, (Jan 4): Pray for the World: We thank God for His love, His amazing grace and the gift of salvation for the world. We thank God for our Lord Jesus for atoning for the sins of the entire world. We thank God for His forgiveness. May the Holy Spirit empower us Church to be the effective witness to shine His light. Pray that every individual, every leader and every nation will come to recognize our Lord Jesus as their Saviour and living God.
