Sunday, (June 16): Pray for parents to teach their children to respect the Lord and to sternly rebuke them if they have done wrong in order to discipline them to be upright and fear the Lord at all times. Pray that parents will teach their children to obey the Lord for their own benefit by building a home environment (safe space) in which Christ is loved, honored, and worshipped. Pray that parents will teach their children to honor the Lord by understanding the gravity of sin and not be like Eli's sons, who ignored their father's warning of God's judgment on them.

Monday, (June 17): Church: We commit to the Lord the LCEC Mid-Year Review and LCEC meeting that will be held on June 21st (Fri.) night and 22nd (Sat.). May God's presence be upon the leaders as they reflect upon God's faithfulness and goodness for the church in the first half of the year, and they will seek God's heart and wisdom for the last half of the year. May God be the centre, leading the meeting. May He unite the hearts of the leaders to humbly desire to hear Him and submit to Him.

Tuesday, (June 18): Pray for the gifts of the Spirit to be used greatly in the lives of all believers to glorify and magnify God's name and His kingdom, which will reign over the dominion of the evil in this world. Pray for believers to be emboldened by the Holy Spirit to boldly share the gospel, as well as to be attentive to the work of the Holy Spirit of proclaiming Christ to those who are desperately seeking it. Pray for a fresh and widespread outpouring of the Holy Spirit on all churches around the world, igniting Christians with the fire and power of the Spirit and empowering them to do God's work.

Wednesday, (June 19): Pray for the Nation – Pray for divine protection against any evil schemes targeting police stations, government offices, rulers' palaces, malls and churches, as well as wisdom for the authorities to exercise vigilance in light of the recent attack on the police station and attempted security breaches. Continue to pray for our government leaders to be guided by principles of righteousness and justice in their policies, actions, and interactions as they manage the needs of all people in a fair, caring, and equitable manner. Pray for blessings upon our Agong, the rulers, the Prime Minister and the cabinet ministers, as well as godly wisdom, so that they can be committed to driving the nation ahead for its progress and betterment.

Thursday, (June 20): TRAC – Commit to the Lord all members of the Board of Ministry and as well as all the District Superintendents. Pray for God's guidance to be with them at all times. Commit to the Lord the upcoming BOM Retreat that will take place from the 25th-27th June. Pray that as we come together to talk and discuss ministerial matters, we will tune our ears toward God's voice and allow our hearts and minds to be guided by God.

Friday, (June 21): The Malaysian Meteorological Department (MetMalaysia) predicts wetter weather conditions (also known as the La Nina phenomenon) to begin between July and September this year. Pray for God's protection during heavy rain, severe thunderstorms and extreme weather. Pray for God's wisdom upon authorities and MetMalaysia in providing the public updated information. Pray for emergency responders as they serve for public safety. Pray for good and responsible environmental management for God's creation to be taken care of and for the effects of climate change to be mitigated.

Saturday (June 22): Pray for the World: Pray unceasingly for the people and nations suffering from war and conflict. May God protect, heal and comfort every person who is facing unspeakable loss and immense emotional and physical suffering. Pray that God will provide world leaders wisdom and unite all people in pursuing world peace. Pray for God's justice and for His mercy to bring an end to war. Pray for the safe return of all hostages and captives to their families.
