Latin Prayer (Eleventh Century)

You who guided Noah
over the flood waves:
Hear us.

You who with your word recalled Jonah from the deep:
Deliver us.

You who stretched forth your hand to
Peter as he sank:
Help us, O Christ.

Son of God,
who did marvelous things of old:
Be favorable in our day also.

– Scots Celtic prayer

Sunday, (Aug 25): Gracious and loving God, we thank you that you are a God who listens and drawn yourself to us. Pray that each day, as your people, we will begin our day (morning) with you and never treat you as a last lifeline after we have exhausted all other options. Pray that despite being attacked by evildoers, we will continue to trust in God's character and covenant and follow his righteous path. Pray that we as his church, will cultivate the posture of praising and thanking him, for he is the God who listens by turning problems to praise and brings blessings out of burdens.

Monday, (Aug 26): Church: We thank God for our church Missions & Evangelism ministry. We thank God for the team and volunteers who passionately go out into the community to help enhance the lives of people and to share the good news of our Lord Jesus. May the Spirit of God and His guidance be with them, and may He work mightily among the people who hear the good news. We also thank God for the various opportunities given to us as a church to support both local and international missions in our partnership with projects or organizations. May God continue to bless us with a generous heart, as He is the Creator and Giver of every good and perfect gift.

Tuesday, (Aug 27): Pray for backsliders who were once close to God but have lost faith in Christ, that God will have mercy on them and bring them back to him by his grace, pardoning their sins. Pray for mockers of the Christian faith, no matter who they are, to realise that our Lord is patient with them and wants them to repent and to come to know the truth that will set them free. Pray that we will be a good environmental steward in reducing greenhouse gas emissions that contributes to climate change and global warning.

Wednesday, (Aug 28): Pray for the Nation: Pray for our country's Merdeka Day (August 31st) and Malaysia Day (September 16th), that the rakyat will live peacefully, grow in mutual understanding respect and acceptance of one another of different religions and races, experience socio-economic progress and political stability and instill a strong love for the country as a proud Malaysian citizen. Pray for our country, as it will be an ageing nation by 2030, and for Christians to be responsible for the needs of their elderly parents and relatives, so that the church may focus on helping those who are truly in need. Pray for the Lord's divine intervention, protection and healing for individuals impacted by the epidemic of the mpox virus, and to prevent further spread to the community.

Thursday, (Aug 29): TRAC: Joint Boards 2024 - Commit to the Lord the upcoming Joint Boards that will take place from the 22nd - 24th of September. Commit to the Lord all Board members who would be gathering to do planning for the coming year. Pray for God's guidance to be upon all Board Chairpersons as they lead their respective boards. Pray for discerning hearts so that together we may do that which God wants us to do for our conference. Pray for journey mercies for all who would be travelling to PDMC.

Friday, (Aug 30): Continue to remember and pray for the truth to be revealed and for the justice to be upheld in the case of Pastor Raymond Koh's disappearance, which happened in February 2017. Pray for God's presence, protection and sustaining grace to be upon Pastor Koh's family, and He will strengthen and help them and uphold them with His righteous right hand.

Saturday (Aug 31): Pray for the World: Pray against any form of sexual abuse and sexual exploitation in the world, which is physical, emotional and psychological violence to dehumanize the vulnerable victims, including children. May the earth be filled with the knowledge and fear of God who created both male and female in His image that genuine love and respect would overcome the lust. Pray for God's healing, comfort and grace to be upon the victims and the family that they will know the truth that they are valuable and loved. Pray that the laws in every city of the world would favour and protect the victims and that justice is upheld.
