Ending Prayer

The arms of God be around my shoulders,
the touch of the Holy Spirit upon my head,
the sign of Christ's cross upon my forehead,
the sound of the Holy Spirit in my ears,
the fragrance of the Holy Spirit in my nostrils,
the vision of heaven's company in my eyes,
the conversation of heaven's company on my
lips,
the work of God's church with my hands,
the service of God and my neighbor in my feet,
a home for God in my heart,
and to God, the Father of all, my entire being.
Amen.

Sunday, (Oct 6): Pray that God will work in and through us, causing the fruit of the spirit to abound in us, revealing God's glory to others through us, and glorifying God in heaven. Pray that we as God's people who have been called to witness to something far greater than partisan politics, social economic standings, and positions, share the gospel of Jesus Christ and be his witness in this nation and to the ends of the earth. Pray that we live each day in a way that honors God, pointing people to the Lord Jesus Christ before his second coming to the world.

Monday, (Oct 7): Church: We commit to the Lord our church youth camp that is held from Oct.31 to Nov.3. We thank God for His provision and the recent successful fundraising with the camp's T-shirt sales. May the Spirit of God unite the young team and guide them, as they prepare for the camp. Pray that the many will be able to join the camp and they will have a personal encounter with our Lord Jesus. Pray for the speaker, Ms.Hannah Foo that God will bless her and prepare her with His word for the camp.

Tuesday, (Oct 8): Pray that God will raise up more pastors and church leaders in the local church setting to shepherd and guide his people after his own heart. Pray that church leaders, particularly pastors, elders and overseers, will feed the sheep well in God's Word, and that congregations who have been faithfully taught by the shepherds will respond in obedience in living out God's commands in their life. Pray for the health of all pastors, as the insurmountable high-stress situations and constant challenges of local church ministry as well as at the Conference level, can take a terrible toll on the pastors' physical, mental and emotional wellbeing.

Wednesday, (Oct 9): Pray for the Nation: Pray for greater discernment and understanding among our country's leaders so that they can make decisions that always prioritise the well-being of the rakyat and the long-term growth of the states and federal level. Pray for sustainable program that will produce a generation of well-educated, skilled and values driven persons who will positively contribute to the country's economic growth as job development. Pray also for the country's education reform agenda, which will provide a supportive and enriching educational environment for future generations.

Thursday, (Oct 10): TRAC: Commit to the Lord the Local Planning Committee (LPC) of the 49th Session TRAC. This year the Annual Conference will be hosted by the Eastern District. Pray for all preparations to go on well and smoothly. Pray for all registrations to come in on time. Commit also to the Lord the election processes that will take place at the conference session. Above all commit to the Lord our Conference President, Rev. Joshua Khong as he leads the conference. Pray for the Holy Spirit to be with him as he presents his Presidential Address at the conference.

Friday, (Oct 11): We commit to the Lord TRAC's Local conferences and District conferences that are held in this month. Pray for God's wisdom and discernment to be upon President Rev Joshua Khong and all the District Superintendents, as they preside at the conferences. May He guide the pastors and leaders in discerning God's work and direction for the churches. Pray for the safe journey of all who will be travelling for the conferences.

Saturday, (Oct 12): Pray for the World: Continue to pray for God's intervention in finding a peaceful, nonviolent solution in the Middle East, as the confrontation between Israel and Hezbollah has escalated. Pray that God will protect those who reside in locations where residents face extreme fear on a daily and nightly basis. Pray that God will keep the vulnerable safe, such as children, the elderly and the sick. Pray that the hospitals will have enough medical equipment and personnel to treat the sick and injured.
